

International Terminology Summer School TSS 2008

Programme and information

University of Vienna
Centre for Translation Studies
Gymnasiumsstrasse 50
1190 Vienna
Austria

www.termnet.org/english/events/tss2008.php
Contact: Anja Drame adrame@termnet.org

 universität wien
 International Network for Terminology

7-11 July 2008

Our trainers

Prof. Dr. Gerhard Budin (University of Vienna)
Prof. Dr. Klaus-Dirk Schmitz (Cologne Univ. of Appl. Sciences)
Prof. Dr. Sue Ellen Wright (Kent State University, Ohio)
Prof. Heribert Picht
Prof. Dr. Frieda Steurs (Lessius University College, Antwerp)
Dr. Gabriele Sauberer (University of Vienna)

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
09:00	Introduction to Terminology Theory	Data Modeling: Data Categories & Modelling Principles	Concept relations and ontologies	Case study: Risk Management Case study: Software localization	Copyright issues for terminologists and translators
10:30	BREAK
11:00	Introduction to Terminology Work	Terminology Management Systems	Project Management for Translators and Terminologists	Case study: Technical Documentation	Discussion, Projects
12:30	BREAK
14:00	Applied Principles of Terminology Work	Creating a database for terminology work	Participants' case studies, Q&A	Case study: Medical Terminology	Discussion, Projects
15:30	BREAK
16:00	Retrieving and validating online resources	Creating a database for terminology work	Participants' case studies, Q&A	The Business case: Economic issues
	Social Event – Get to know each other!

Participation:
250 / 450 / 550 EUR*

*check our Website to find out which discount applies to you

What is TSS?

TSS is a one-week, practice-oriented introductory training for terminology management. TSS is for practitioners, students, scientists who are looking for a comprehensive, first-class introduction to terminology theory and practice.

Still unsure? Get more information!
Contact Anja: adrame@termnet.org